INTRODUCTION

Once more we are glad to present to you another volume of the Mennonite Year Book and Directory. These occasions are like milestones in the history of our church and people. They show that another year of our church life and activities has gone into history and they give us a brief glimpse of the salient points of that history. Brief articles are given on the outstanding events that occurred in the mission, charitable, educational, publication, and young people's work, and in a general way record any progress that has been made.

In general one can express appreciation for the increased interest and activity along these various lines. It is encouraging to note that about six city missions have been added to the list in the Year Book. Not all of these were opened during the past year, but they have reached a status as soul-saving stations that now warrants their listing among our older and more established mission points. The charitable and relief work has been kept up, also, although the program for the latter has been materially affected by the outbreak of the European War. Less encouraging is the amount of money contributed for mission and charitable purposes, which seems to have fallen off during the past calendar year. What the reasons are, we cannot tell for certain; we trust there has not been a lapse of the sense of Christian stewardship on the part of our people.

The educational work seems to be on the increase, that is, more people are patronizing our educational institutions than ever before. The work of the Publication Board likewise is growing from year to year, with an increasingly larger volume of business, and we trust a correspondingly greater influence for good. The Commission for Christian Education and Young People's Work, which has taken over the activities of the Sunday School Committee, the Young People's Bible Meeting Topics Committee, Young People's Problems Committee, and certain phases of Mission Study work, is making progress in caring for the large scope of work committed to its charge.

It is gratifying to know that most of our district conferences show a continued growth in numbers. The Church as a whole, in the United States, Canada, India, South America, and Africa, shows a total gain of 1136 over last year. The gain in the United States alone is 1090. For the first time in the history of the Mennonite Church the membership in the United States is over 50,000. The Sunday-school enrollment, for some reason not apparent, shows a slight loss over the previous year recorded. This gives us cause for sober reflection as to whether we have slowed up in our efforts in this phase of our Christian activities. Summer Bible Schools show a healthy growth, as the table on page 30 will show.

A new feature in connection with the Church Directory is that of giving, wherever possible, the full Executive Committee of each conference. We feel that this gives additional information that will be of help to our readers. The Summary of Events reveals the number of ordained men who have answered the summons to come up higher during the past year, as well as those who have been ordained to help carry on the work which they have laid down.

A feature which we regret is that of the number of congregations and ministers that are recorded as "not under conference." But since it is the duty of the statistician to record facts as they are these are listed in the Year Book as they are handed in to us. It should be understood that the fact that they are recorded gives no opinion on our part as to the right or wrong of their attitudes and positions.

All statistical material has been carefully revised, entailing much time and labor. But we are glad to do this in order to give to all who use the Year Book as nearly accurate information as is humanly possible concerning the work and progress from year to year of the Mennonite Church. And may all our efforts in every line of endeavor be to the honor and glory of God and the extension of His kingdom here below.

SUMMARY OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THE MENNONITE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHARITIES IN 1939

By E. C. Bender, Treasurer

The spiritual life of any congregation can be judged by its missionary activity. This may be indicated by being actively engaged in missionary enterprises or by liberal giving for missionary causes proportionate to income, or both. In a general way we may say that the spiritual life of any denomination can be judged by the activities of its General Mission Board. Normally, we should expect a mission board to be aggressive and steadily moving forward into unoccupied fields.

The Board can move only as fast as the constituency which it serves moves. On the other hand it is just as true that a constituency will move forward just as fast as it is enlightened, encouraged, and led. Who is more responsible for this than the Mission Board? As members of the Board, we keenly feel our responsibility and beg your prayers in our behalf that we may serve faithfully.

In some sections there have been changes; in others there has been a moving forward; and in still others there has been retrogression. Looking at the past year's work as a whole, we feel safe in saying that there has been progression.

Bro. and Sister A. C. Brunk, who were home on furlough from India, returned to the field again. Mina Esch, widow of Dr. Esch, who died in India several years ago, resumed her work as an India missionary. Along with these returning missionaries two new ones were sent, namely, John and Genevieve Friesen. This party sailed from Seattle, Washington, on October 13 and arrived on the field November 28. Bro. and Sister Calvin Holderman and Sister Una Cressman are the newly appointed missionaries to South America. On account of the difficulty of receiving letters of admission into Argentina, their sailing date was temporarily postponed. At the time of this writing we have received word that the Holdermans will be accepted in Argentina, and we are hoping to receive similar word concerning Una Cressman. Possibly by the time this message is in print these newly appointed missionaries will be sailing or will be on the field.

Our workers in the foreign fields faced many severe and testing problems, in the face of which we are glad that they could report a forward movement in extending the borders. Their crying need is more funds, equipment, and workers. The thousands in their territory who have never heard of the Christ and are eternally lost unless we bring the message to them are almost overwhelming.

The building budget for India this year calls for a bungalow at Drug, an evangelistic station and two compounders' houses. Along with the seasonal repairs the budget amounts to $3,840. These buildings are very essential and should have been a part of the equipment before this.

Argentina is greatly in need of a place of worship at Cosquin. To this time their services at Cosquin have been held on the veranda of a rented dwelling house in which the workers live. When you take into account that this place is in the hill country and therefore colder than our other Argentine stations, you will appreciate the need of a house of worship. The budget for this building is $5000.

There has been practically no change during the year in the personnel of our city missions. In most cases there has been a steady growth. Some stations have been doing commendable summer Bible school work. The way that the members of several of our stations have been attempting to furnish needed repairs and carry the load themselves has been proof to us of the possibility of our city missions becoming self-supporting.

Through the faithful services of our city workers many souls have received salvation and many have been fed the sincere milk of the Word so that they have developed into robust Christians.

The Mission Board has always taken an interested and friendly attitude towards rural work. Since this work can in so many cases be efficiently carried on by local congregations, the General Board has largely left the development of this work to them. However, there are many unevangelized rural regions out of reach of any congregation towards which the Board feels a great responsibility. We are praying that there will be definite means and workers so that we may launch out into these fields. Definite action has been taken to contribute $25 per month towards the support of another missionary couple in the Culp, Arkansas, field as soon as it is needed.

The Mexican border work has been encouraging. Amsa Kauffman, our worker there, has been ordained and is preaching to the Mexicans in their language. Others in this field have been largely making their own living and helping along in a much appreciated way.

The work in our mission fields, whether at home or abroad, has been encouraging, and we praise our Lord for it but there are so many that will be lost unless we bring the Good News to them! Let us do more. The more we do, so much more will the Lord enable us to do.

Our charitable institutions, with the exception of one, are filled to capacity. The one exception is the Old People's Home at Rittman, Ohio, which was dedicated in January, 1939. If the present rate of additions of new inmates continues, it will not be long until this will be filled to capacity.

Kansas City Children's Home is greatly in need of an isolation ward. The state is insisting that we make this addition. To date we have not seen the necessary means to begin this work. It will require about $5,000 to build this to meet state specifications. This is another challenge for us to accept.

Nearly every year there is some call for relief work in one field or another. Before our relief workers have completed their task in war-stricken Spain the call comes from other war-stricken regions. On November 19, Bro. M. C. Lehman sailed from New York. His destination was war-stricken Poland. He is to direct relief work for the Central Committee. By the time this article is in print, no doubt, one of our brethren will be in London directing relief work on the British-French side. Our policy is to give relief wherever we can, regardless which side of the conflict it may be.

With the enemy so manifest in the world today, especially in war and hatred and cruelty, we trust that our people will give themselves a thorough searching as to whether they have been faithful stewards and have been doing their duty in helping to carry out the Great Commission. Already our Canadian people are at war, and there is no assurance that the United States will be able to keep out. Should the draft test come again, will we be able to prove to the authorities that we have been faithful ambassadors for our King while pilgrims and strangers here?

May the time be not far distant that all our present mission stations, wherever they may be, will be self-supporting congregations and these congregations in turn helping to establish other stations. May we be truly aggressive. This is our prayer. "Ye shall be witnesses."

THE SOUTH AMERICAN MISSION

By J. W. Shank

Since the year 1939 marks the twentieth anniversary of the opening of the first mission station of the Argentine Mennonite Mission, we feel we have reached a milepost in the work. A backward look over the road we have come may help us to decide whether we have properly used our opportunities. From that first station (which happens to be the one where we are located at the present time) the work has spread to some thirty towns and villages where the Gospel is being preached regularly or at intervals. "My word shall not return unto me void," says our God, therefore we feel assured that much of the seed we have sown will come to fruitage in places and in ways unknown to us. The consoling fact is that God knows where the seeds have borne fruit. We can leave it all to Him. Our job is to continue the sowing.

The Year 1939

The present year is not finished, but we can tell about some of the activities, trends and accomplishments thus far.

The tent campaign was carried on in the western part of our district, Bro. and Sister Weber being the principal ones in charge. The preaching was done by a number of native and missionary brethren of our own mission. In some of the towns weather conditions were unfavorable, but on the whole the campaign was quite satisfactory. Many souls were claimed for the Lord. I can speak for two of the towns in the Pehuajo district to the effect that the tent work did a great deal of good. The attendance and interest in general were greatly increased and have continued to be good.

When the time comes for a family or several families to return to North America for furlough, we have the task of reparceling the work. This time it was more difficult, inasmuch as several families were to leave at about the same time. The return of the Lantzes has made it possible for the work in the hills to continue without a break. In this district we have taken on several women workers and one young man, all graduates of the Bible school. They are doing creditable work assisting in the outstations. The new missionary family, Timothy Brenneman and wife, is progressing rapidly in their language study. They have already begun to take some responsibilities in the mission.

The orphanage this year is in charge of a young Argentine couple. They have been faithful members of our church for years and have always been active in the church. They seem to be getting along very well with the children. Bro. Litwiller has general oversight of the institution.

This year some very radical changes were made in the way of locating the native pastors. Some who had been for many years in the same place were changed to the other end of the district. Such changes were made with the hope of improving the efficiency of the workers.

An attempt is being made this year to work more effectively in the various outstations. We have felt that the work in many of them was on a standstill basis and needed a revival. We see some marked improvement in the interest, especially in the Sunday schools and in the attendance at the weekly preaching services. Several single sisters are doing a creditable work in these places.

The sphere of influence exercised in the Cosquin district has become much enlarged with each added year of work. Bro. and Sister Weber had made many new contacts during the past year, and since the Lantzes have continued, the growth in interest and membership has gone on. We praise the Lord for this manifestation of His approval. At the present time plans are well under way to build a chapel and pastor's home in Cosquin. This venture has been made possible through the contributions of the native Argentine Christians. During a period of seven or eight years the extension fund has been accumulating.

Our rotating building fund has made possible several other new building projects. Among them are a small chapel in a suburb of Santa Rosa where a great deal of interest was manifested during the tent meetings early in the year; also a small chapel in Lonquimay, where the rents have been raised to an unreasonable amount. Still other projects would be carried through were it not for the war in Europe. Because of that some kinds of building material have increased greatly in price. A new chapel was dedicated in Pellegrini in the month of August. This was a forward step for the small congregation at that place. We hope there will be spiritual growth as a result.

After twenty years we can count some twenty congregations, counting large and small ones, at least one congregation for each year. Is not that a reason for praise to our Master? Each congregation formed means a group who testify for the Lord and a place where men and women who are soul hungry can come to hear God's Word at regular intervals. During this long period some of our Sunday-school children have grown into manhood and womanhood. One frail little girl from Trenque Lauquen, who came to our Sunday school bringing her younger brothers and sisters, she herself only about ten years of age, is today one of the most trusted workers. A young man, a former pupil in the Pehuajo kindergarten as well as the Sunday school, is in the medical school in Buenos Aires. Within another year he will complete his seven years of training in the university. He has been a faithful Sunday-school teacher during his years of study.

Space will not allow me to enumerate many things to show the changes during these twenty years. Let us leave those years with the recording angel. Let us hope that our failures because of weakness or lack of faith may be pardoned and that our small accomplishments may be counted, not as ours in reality, but as the work of our Lord through our feeble efforts.

Pehuajo, Argentina.

MEXICAN BORDER

By Amsa H. Kauffman

Another year has passed and we feel very grateful for the blessings that have come our way. The Lord has remembered us in a very special way and has showed us His saving power as well as His love for the souls who live in darkness. We know that the Lord has spoken very definitely to quite a number of Mexicans during the past year, and as a result, here and there a number have responded to His call. During the past year we have received ten Mexicans into the church by water baptism, and at the present time we have a class under instruction, which we expect to receive in the next few weeks. In this group of converts we have an old man who cannot expect to be here long any more, and we rejoice with him because of the light he has received and the friend he has found in Jesus. Then, too, we have a father and mother who were received, and they are very much interested in the work of the Lord. We expect to receive three children of the above-mentioned family at our next baptismal service. There are, however, some Mexicans who have been coming to our services and who love to listen to the Word, but who are not willing to yield themselves to the Lord. It seems that the evil forces of the world have such a hold on some of these people that it is very difficult for them to make a stand for Jesus Christ.

As yet we have not opened any new stations this year, but are trying to build up and strengthen the four stations we have started. There are times when the work is rather discouraging and then again the interest and attendance will increase, and we get new inspiration and feel that the Lord is remembering us in a definite way. Our attendance for several months during the summer always decreases. This is due to the fact that our people follow the cotton harvest, and this takes them away during the months of July, August, September, and sometimes a greater part of October. Sometimes some of them stay till the cold weather in the northern part of the state sets in. At this writing (Dec. 11) most of them are at home, and our attendance is better now than it has ever been, generally speaking. I mean by this that we have better attendance at the four stations at the present time than ever before. There is plenty of room for improvement, however, and we trust that many more will become interested in our work and attend our services.

Much more might be done among the Mexican people and there are many places where they are living in ignorance and darkness. Many of them are yielding to false teachings, and we are sorry to say that one of our own members has accepted and is teaching one of these false religions. It is not such a difficult thing to get a following when one has an easy-going religion to offer, a religion that does not teach eternal punishment, and at the same time offers eternal life. It is a sad thing to see these people respond to such teachings just because it will satisfy their desires for awhile. May we pray that the Lord will overrule, and that somehow these people might receive the true light before it is too late.

You might be interested in knowing something about our charity work. We are working with a very poor class of people; some of them have come from old Mexico because they could not make a living there, and still others who have never been able to get anywhere because of poor wages and their inability to help themselves to better work. And since we work with the people who live in rural sections and small towns, we have the poorest class to work with. One of our members came to me the other day and said he and his wife had nothing to eat, and there was no work, and he did not know what to do. Then I asked him what we might buy for them with the least money at the same time help them the most. He told me that if they had just shelled corn, then he could grind it with a small hand grinder and they would get along quite well. He told me a bushel of corn would last them for two months. Corn is quite plentiful, but if one does not have it and no money to buy, then we face a different situation. We are glad we could help this Mexican brother in his need. We have given quite a number of garments which have been supplied by the sewing circles in the North and no doubt throughout the winter months we will be able to help these poor people more in this way. We have had some urgent calls for groceries and we always try to help wherever we feel that the need is genuine. In case of sickness, we have gone to the doctor, and we have given home remedies in a number of instances. Thus, we show that a practical religion is the one Jesus taught when He was on earth.

WORK OF THE MENNONITE RELIEF COMMITTEE

By John L. Horst, Secretary

The largest project carried on by the Mennonite Relief Committee during the past few years was that of relief work in Spain. This was begun in the fall of 1937 and continued through that winter and the next, and in a modified form into this present season. During the winter of 1938-39, as in the year before, our people gave liberally of money and clothing for this cause. Six and a half tons (13,043 pounds) of new and secondhand clothing, valued at $12,411.55, were collected and shipped to Spain in various shipments throughout this second winter of our work in Spain. These were gathered at five different centers: Lancaster, Pa.; Scottdale, Pa.; Kitchener, Ont.; Elkhart, Ind.; and Kalona, Ia.

Bro. Levi Hartzler, who helped to begin the work in Spain in 1937, and had remained in Europe for the winter of 1938-39, was joined by Bros. Lester Hershey and Clarence Fretz, who sailed from New York on Oct. 6, 1938. Two provinces of South Republican Spain had been assigned to our workers, and the work was of such proportions that two additional workers, Bros. Wilbert Nafziger and Ernest Bennett, were sent. They sailed from New York on Feb. 25, 1939. However, by the time they arrived in Spain the war had come to an end, on March 28. This changed the picture quite materially. Naturally we were concerned about both the safety of our workers and of the future of the work, when the transition was made to the new government. A telegram from Bro. Hartzler assured us that all five of the workers were safe. We had to await further word as to what status the work would have under the Franco regime.

Most of the food distributed by our workers since October, 1938, had been furnished by the International Commission for the Assistance of Child Refugees in Spain, and we learned that they expected to terminate their work by about August 1. It became clear to the Relief Committee that a representative should go to Europe and help the workers to determine if it were possible or advisable to continue work. Accordingly Bro. Orie O. Miller, chairman of the committee, sailed from New York on May 2. He met a number of the workers in Paris, and together with them it was decided that Bros. Hartzler and Fretz should return to America, while Bros. Hershey, Nafziger, and Bennett should remain on the field.

At the close of the war all relief supplies were taken over by the relief organization of the new government, the Auxilio Social, but the International Commission found that it could continue work in co-operation with them, and was glad to have three of our workers to continue on the field. It was planned that Sister Sara Nafziger should join them later, but about the time it was arranged for her to sail, in the latter part of August, the European War broke out, and so she remained at home. Due to the lessening of the work, as needs from other European areas claimed the attention of relief organizations, Bro. Nafziger returned home, landing at New York on Dec. 6, 1939. Bros. Hershey and Bennett are remaining to close up the Spanish work, probably early in this present year. This will probably terminate, for the time being, our relief efforts in behalf of the Spanish people. One of the regrettable incidents in connection with our Spanish work was the accidental shooting in the arm of Bro. Hershey. We are glad to report that he seems to be recovering satisfactorily. Considerable need still exists in Spain, but this is overshadowed by the greater needs of refugees who have been driven from their homes because of the new European War.

These aforesaid needs, in such areas as Poland, France, England, Finland, and Rumania, were considered by the Relief Committee. Consequently, it, in collaboration with the Mennonite Central Committee which represents eight different groups of Mennonites, made arrangements to send representatives to Europe to investigate relief needs on both sides of the conflict. Bro. M. C. Lehman was appointed to sail for Germany and Poland, with the view of organizing work in Poland. Bro. Lehman sailed from New York on Nov. 19, and reached Germany safely the beginning of December.

In co-operation with the nonresistant groups of Ontario, Canada, the various Mennonite groups of the Central Committee also appointed Bro. Amos Swartzentruber, of Kitchener, Ont., on furlough from the South America Mennonite Mission, to organize work among refugees in the allied countries. He sailed from New York for London on Jan. 19. In London he was to be met by Bros. Hershey and Bennett and together they will try to work out policies and projects for relief work in the countries at war on, or in sympathy with, the allied side of the European War. Considerable clothing has been gathered, which will be shipped to needy places as soon as we hear from our brethren where they feel it can be used to fill a real need. Because the work has not yet been fully organized no urgent appeals have been made for funds. However, our congregations are urged to contribute to the General or European Relief funds as they have opportunity. Especially since appeals for relief work of various kinds come to our people we urge them to send their contributions to our treasurer at Elkhart, Ind., to support work that is being sponsored by the Mennonite Church.

Other interests that have claimed the attention of the Mennonite Relief Committee have been our brethren in Western Canada, who have each year been helped by substantial shipments of heavy clothing, and the brethren in the Fernheim Colony in Paraguay, which has been sponsored by the Mennonite Central Committee. Reports from this colony are encouraging. Crops have been fair, the brethren have been able to make payments on their land, and they are settling down to making permanent homes in the Chaco in Paraguay.

We thank our congregations and sewing circles for the generous support which they have given to this work, and ask an interest in the prayers of all the brotherhood in behalf of both the committee and the workers who are engaged in the relief of human suffering in the name of Christ. Matt. 10: 42.

ACTIVITIES OF EASTERN MENNONITE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHARITIES FOR 1939

By Henry F. Garber, President

The year has brought to us its usual share of blessings and problems. Work at our stations has been carried on with varied results. Our brethren sow the seed and look to God for the harvest.

The European war affects our work. It is bound to raise questions in the minds of unsaved people as they ponder this war between so-called Christian nations. It made necessary other sailing routes at higher costs for our furloughed missionaries. To offset this there has been a very favorable exchange rate, thus making our foreign funds reach about twenty per cent further.

During the year six new missionaries went to the African field. Early in the year Eby and Elva Leaman sailed. In October, Vivian Eby and Rhoda Wenger left with Elam and Elizabeth Stauffer, who returned from their first furlough. In December, Dr. Merle Eshleman, wife, and daughter sailed for the field. This brings the missionary personnel up to twenty-three. There are also seven children now on the field. John and Ruth Mosemann arrived home on furlough in June. The health of the group generally is good.

One new station was added to the list in the home field. The Carpenter Church, a union church near Talmage in Lancaster County was offered to the board for use without rent. Sunday school and preaching services are now held there regularly.

During the year the new church for the Lancaster Colored Mission was finished and dedicated. It is a substantial brick structure.

At the Mellinger Church, on Dec. 13, a gathering of new and secondhand clothing, bedding, and shoes was made for needy folks in western Canada and in Europe. About three and one-half tons of material were gathered.

For the second time in two years, one of our city mission superintendents was ordained to the bishop office. A year ago Stoner Krady was called to the office of bishop, and on Dec. 6, J. Paul Graybill from our Philadelphia Mission was called to this office.

After the first World War many of our Russian Mennonite brethren fled from Russia and settled in Canada and United States. About $50,000 was loaned by our people to our board to help these folks come over. This money was then loaned to these Mennonite brethren. They have repaid enough now so that all but a few of our local note holders could be paid off. It has given us a great relief, for these transactions required a great deal of bookkeeping.

The church has stood by well in a financial way in the face of an expanding mission program. Receipts for this year will likely be 3% lower than for 1938. All our bills are paid.

When there is money to carry on, it gives us satisfaction. When the number of stations and workers increases, we are encouraged. But these are not the most important things. What concerns us most is the witness that is held forth and the response that lost men and women give to it. May God bless this witness as it goes out in many ways and many places.

THE AFRICA MISSION IN 1939

By J. Clyde Shenk

The Lord has been good to the African Mission through the past year. Not everything happened as we would have planned, but we rejoice in knowing that "all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

There were a number of out-schools opened at Shirati. This increase marks a definite advance in the work there. Some of these were opened because of four boys having finished a three-year course at the Bukiroba school. They were formerly from Shirati and have now returned to help spread the Gospel among their own people. A number of changes were necessary at Shirati in the European personnel due to the furloughs of Bro. and Sister Mosemann in May and Dr. Shenk in December and also to the sickness of Bro. Leaman, but the blessing of the Lord has been definitely present. A new church building was erected and dedicated at Shirati before the Mosemanns left. This is the largest church building in the Mission, and we rejoice that the attendance at Shirati is good.

An out-school has been opened in the Bukiroba section which has been a blessing. A building has been purchased in Musoma where Sunday morning services are held. This work is an open door with great possibilities and difficulties. Pray for it. Services were held at the jail all year on Sunday afternoon, and a catechism class is now under instruction there each week.

The Wenger's house was completed at Mugango early in the year. The annual conference was held at this station from Aug. 22-24. The conference with the natives followed from Aug. 26-28. We received deep spiritual blessings during both of these conferences. The outstations in Majita land that are shepherded from this station have been an encouragement, and several new stations have been opened. There are now nine outstations in Majita. A girls' work has been begun at Mugango, and the prospects for growth are very good.

The Bumangi school has been blessed with two consecutive three-month terms. This is the first time such a program could be carried out on this station. Services are being held at two mines on Sunday afternoons. This work needs your prayers.

Morning and afternoon school has been carried on at Shirati and Mugango. The teachers' training school and the afternoon school have been in progress at Bukiroba. We praise the Lord for the opportunities to witness, which these schools present. Prayer meetings, women's sewing classes, hearers' classes, catechism classes, and Sunday services have been carried on weekly at all stations. Visitation work has also been done to some extent on all stations.

Our hearts are filled with joy these days because of the arrival of the Stauffers and Sisters Eby and Wenger. We know that there is work waiting for all of them to do. We see no reason to hold the opening of the Nyabasi station off any longer now that the Stauffers are here to release the Fersters for this work. This station was not occupied in May, as was our expectation earlier, but was postponed because of changes caused by sickness.

We have seen some spiritual progress in the past year, but we believe that what the African Church needs most is a revival. Please join us in praying to this end.

THE WORK OF THE MENNONITE BOARD OF EDUCATION DURING THE PAST YEAR

By D. A. Yoder, President

The work of the Mennonite Board of Education becomes rather routine from year to year in many respects, but there are always new situations arising, which require the best thinking on the part of the members of the Board and especially on the part of those who are placed in positions of responsibility.

The Executive Committee of the Board meets a number of times during the year for the consideration of problems affecting both Goshen and Hesston colleges. In furthering the interests of the schools, we attempt to keep in mind their spiritual, scholastic, and financial welfare. One way in which we have been trying to help is by having members of the Executive Committee to be members of the Local Boards of both Goshen and Hesston. We have these meetings with them at least three times a year. Among the questions considered are student attendance, faculty, budgets, courses, support of the constituency, and such like. We believe these contacts have been conducive to a better understanding between the Board and the two schools.

We appreciate the fact of the increased enrollment in the different departments of the schools. It is gratifying to note the increased attendance in the Bible departments and the special winter Bible terms. We hope the Church by her continued support will make it possible to keep these departments on a low-cost basis. As college attendance increases, our opportunity to testify to others who are not Mennonites increases and with it the responsibility to give a true testimony.

There have been additions to the faculty in both schools. These additions strengthen their scholastic standing, thereby helping us to keep our credit with accrediting agencies and enabling our graduates to obtain recognition in other schools as well as positions in other fields of work.

While we are interested in scholarship, we are more concerned about the spiritual emphases, which are manifest and the testimony of which we have from many students, both Mennonite and non-Mennonite. We trust that this spirit may increase as we continue in our work.

There has been a slow decrease in the indebtedness of the Board, and we are hoping this may continue until we can say that debts are all paid. The year 1939 will possibly be remembered more especially because of the building of the Memorial Library at Goshen College. This project has been looked forward to for many years. This is especially interesting to the Church because it is being built with the idea of furnishing a safe place to keep valuable papers of interest to the Church as a whole.

With a desire to serve the Church, we earnestly crave an interest in your prayers and hope that we may be used in His will in the educational interests of our young people. Elkhart, Ind.

EASTERN MENNONITE SCHOOL

By J. L. Stauffer, President

Eastern Mennonite School has now served the eastern part of the Mennonite Church for twenty-two years. The present session is favored with the largest enrollment in its history. Over 240 students have registered in either High-School, High-School-Bible, Normal, Junior-College, Junior-College-Bible or College-Bible courses.

While the growth of the School has been slow due to the fact that it is a new institution in this part of the Church, yet we feel that the growth has been substantial and many young lives have been blessed through the School. Many of our alumni and former students are serving their Lord as officials and Sunday-school workers in their home congregations. Many others are touching young lives in the schoolroom and in city and rural missions. Some are serving on the African mission field.

The Board of Trustees and the faculty are definitely committed to the standards and ideals of the Mennonite Church. They are endeavoring to maintain and propagate these ideals among the students with the hope that definite convictions can be created or strengthened in favor of the conservative faith of our fathers which is in full harmony with the never-changing Word of God.

Through the years, various courses have been added with the view of meeting the needs of both high-school and college students. During the past year, a course for high-school students was provided in the field of Industrial Arts. In this course electricity, sheet-metal work, and woodworking are studied from a practical standpoint. Most of the work is done by hand tools which makes for a practical training and helpfulness to those who return to the farm. Of course skill in the use of tools will be of help in whatever vocation the student may find his lifework. The enthusiasm among the students who have registered for this course is a testimony to its practical value.

The campus has been beautified by the splendid gifts of graduating classes. Roadways have been made by students who desired to work out part of their school expenses. Both the entire front campus and the Administration Building have been encircled by asphalt drives. Smith Avenue which leads to the Mt. Clinton Pike has also been graded and asphalted. The parking space west of the building has been enlarged and the resulting terrace has been sodded. The parking grounds on both the east and west side of the building have been asphalted. All of this work was done by students.

The educational standards of the institution are such that the Virginia Board of Education has rated our High School as standard each year since 1921, while our Junior-College and Normal Departments are on the official list of accredited Junior Colleges. These ratings enable our students to attend higher institutions of learning without any reduction in credits. Our institution receives in the various states the same rating that is given to other similarly accredited out-of-state colleges.

Eastern Mennonite School is interested in the best for the Mennonite youth. The Faculty is constantly seeking better preparation, keeping spiritual interest uppermost in their preparation. The Board is endeavoring to furnish the best and fullest equipment for the laboratories. An endeavor to inculcate high Christian ideals along with first-class academic instruction is attempted by the corps of instructors. Yet with all the effort expended, as a faculty, we are conscious of the fact that unless "the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it." It is not "by might nor by power, but by my Spirit." We covet the intercessions of all who are interested in the young people of the Mennonite Church and incidentally in the future of the Mennonite Church, because as our youth, so our future church.

Harrisonburg, Va.

Never trifle with truth. A lie is bad; not only because it may lead others astray, but also because it is a fault in the character for the one that utters it. Truth is the foundation and substance of character. When a man becomes a liar his character is gone. His whole life is out of joint. No one can trust him. He cannot trust himself. He is like a bridge with a rotten foundation. He is not safe. He is an unsafe friend, an unsafe business man.—Sel.

ACTIVITIES OF THE MENNONITE PUBLICATION BOARD AND THE MENNONITE PUBLISHING HOUSE FOR 1939

By C. B. Shoemaker, Secretary-Treasurer of the House

The biennial meeting of the Mennonite Publication Board was held August 16-18, 1939, with the Landis Valley congregation near Lancaster, Pa. Almost a complete roll call was answered by members of the thirteen conference districts represented on the Board. Parts of the sessions were devoted to business; and parts to discussion of live subjects pertaining to the publishing and distribution of Gospel literature. Good attendance and live interest carried throughout the entire meeting.

Since the former biennial meeting, the Board suffered the loss of its president, Bro. M. H. Shantz, New Dundee, Ont.; one member of the Publishing Committee, Bro. Geo. R. Brunk, Denbigh, Va.; and one of the editors of The Way, Bro. John H. Mosemann, Lancaster, Pa. The treasurer of the Board, Bro. Henry Hershey, because of his age tendered his resignation. A resolution was adopted expressing appreciation for his faithful and meritorious service.

The election of officers resulted in the following changes: Simon Gingerich, Wayland, Iowa, as president, and L. S. Martin, Harrisonburg, Va., as treasurer. We welcome these two brethren in sharing the responsibilities of the executive end of the publishing interests of the church. The other members of the Board and editors of the House received reappointment with the additional appointment of John R. Mumaw as editor of the Mission Supplement of the Gospel Herald.

The blessings of the Lord were manifest in the work at the Publishing House during the past year. The united support of the church has made possible a good annual report. With the past fiscal year's business reaching nearly $200,000 and with assets of about $370,000, net earning of nearly $20,000 was realized.

This gain at first thought may appear large, but it is very reasonable when compared with the amount of investment and the volume of business done during the fiscal year. These earnings have come in through various sources, viz., (1) Delinquent subscriptions have been paid which were really part of the gain of former years. (2) Less annuity interest needs to be paid each year as annuitants are called home to glory. (3) Our building indebtedness now having been cleared, no further interest needs to be paid on loans. (4) The twenty-one apartments in our three buildings bring in a revenue aside from the printing and publishing business. (5) The branch book stores brought in substantial earnings. All of these, as well as other items, have contributed to the whole.

Our Constitution and By-Laws provide that any surplus money not needed in the transaction of the business of the House is to be turned over to the Board for their supervision. Accordingly the Board was able to make contributions totaling $3,700 during the past year to a number of church causes and some non-earning church Boards and Committees under General Conference for their printing and literature needs.

Another branch book store was purchased by the Board in the fall of 1939. Bro. J. Silas Graybill, Souderton, Pa., had been operating a book store in Souderton for the past six years. This being situated in the center of a large Mennonite constituency of the Franconia District, it was considered an opportunity of added service if this work could be connected directly with the Publishing House. During September and October a new store was built on the front of the property at 220 Main Street, Souderton, Pa., where an attractive religious book store is now in operation with Bro. J. Silas Graybill in charge. The other branch stores located at Kitchener, Ont., New Holland and Lancaster, Pa., each had an increased patronage and service during the year.

The Board adopted a recommendation at its biennial meeting that an advisory committee, consisting of three brethren, be appointed for each of our book stores, the same to be appointed by the Executive Committee in consultation with the officers of the local conference in which district the store is located. When these committees are appointed and begin to function, they will serve as an advisory council in policy and practice in the operating of each local store.

There has been a general feeling that the Tract department of the Mennonite Publishing House should be strengthened and enlarged. Several informal meetings were held of representative men of the church in a discussion of the subject. A committee of three brethren, Daniel Kauffman, John L. Horst, and Floyd Shank, drafted the following recommendations which were presented to the Publication Board at its biennial meeting:

1. That a Tract Committee be continued with either five or seven members, the idea of the latter being to enlist the co-operation of a representative group of tract-minded people of the Church.
2. That the person who is editor of our tract paper, The Way, serve as chairman of the Tract Committee and Tract Editor, and that arrangements be made for him to give the time to this work which it deserves.
3. That the appointment of Tract Editor and the other members of the Tract Committee be delegated to the Executive Committee of the Board.
4. That in the interests of economy and efficiency we urge a closer co-operation between the various tract-producing agencies in the Church, and that where advisable mergers be made.
5. That the scope of our tract work be enlarged to include a wider variety and an increased number of tracts, especially salvation tracts and those adapted to children and young people.
6. That the Tract Editor give time to the production of new and more attractive tracts, and especially look out for and secure writers of tracts.
7. That the Tract Editor also give time and attention to a wider dissemination of tracts and encourage tract distribution in a church-wide way.
8. That a nominal price for tracts be continued, with provisions for free tracts also.

These recommendations were accepted and adopted in principle by the Board, and the Executive Committee of the Board was empowered to work out the details. To date three men have been appointed on this tract committee, viz., A. J. Metzler, chairman; Geo. R. Smoker, tract editor; and Sanford Shetler. The four additional are to be appointed after consultation with various regional tract organizations.

The Publishing House is endeavoring to strengthen and extend its sales activities. We now have a number of local representatives serving parts or all of several conference districts. Also in co-operation with the officers of general and district meetings, more bookstands are being set up at conferences and board gatherings, as a direct service to our people. A field man to assist district representatives and to make home-to-home calls in the interest of church periodicals, Bibles, and religious books, is also helping to extend our service.

The Mission Study Course Committee of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities a few years ago outlined a new course of study which is to include books on our different mission fields, various phases of missionary activity, studies of the Biblical basis of missions, and missionary biographies. Titles published recently are as follows:

Exalting Christ in the City, by J. D. Mininger.

Our Mission Work in India, by M. C. Lehman.

Those appearing early in 1940 are as follows:

The World Goal of Bible Missions, by I. E. Burkhart.

Mennonite Pioneers, by John S. Umble.

Life Songs No. 2 and Martyrs Mirror have had a splendid sale during 1939, covering over 25,000 copies of Life Songs No. 2 and nearly 1000 of Martyrs Mirror. A few new booklets printed recently are: He Careth for You by Ruth Grove Schumann; My Vision of the Future by Daniel Kauffman; Brief Studies in Prophecy by M. J. Brunk; Lessons in Doctrine, a doctrinal quarterly in four parts, by Edward Yoder.

Our branch book store managers join with us in the feeling that we need continually to be on our guard to safeguard faithfully the literature that is distributed among our people. New books from various publishers are coming out so rapidly that it is a real task to attempt to review or examine carefully all that might be suitable for our needs. Therefore, we solicit suggestions and recommendations of titles of good books by any one who has read them and can endorse them.

We solicit the prayers, counsels, criticisms, and suggestions of all interested in the spreading of the Gospel and the advancement of the cause of Christ and the Church through the medium of the printed page.

THE COMMISSION FOR CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

By John R. Mumaw, General Secretary

There are certain aims or objectives which can be realized through various teaching agencies of the church. These desired outcomes are the results of many different efforts which all contribute to the instruction of growing and thinking persons. They are goals toward which we strive. The hope of their attainment motivates the labors and study of the Commission for Christian Education and Young People's Work. A brief statement of some appears in the following paragraphs.

One purpose of Christian teaching is to lead persons into an experimental knowledge of Jesus Christ. We aim to help people discover their need of salvation and understand the plan of redemption. Faithful teachers and leaders are never satisfied until their pupils have come into an experience of the new birth and have come to enjoy a definite assurance of salvation.

Another aim in Christian education is to establish, strengthen, and settle persons in their faith. They must be led to appreciate, love, trust, and obey God. Christian living is a fellowship with Christ and loyal service to Him. The teaching processes have not reached their goal until the pupil has been led to realize that divine fellowship in Christian service and is filled with the Holy Spirit.

A third objective in Christian education is to lead persons into consistent Christian living. People need to have created within them so strong a desire for the right that with their loyalty to truth it develops within them a willingness to sacrifice for it. The Christ-life is guided by the divine ideals and religious standards upheld in the Word of God. The task of the Christian teacher is to help people conform their living to those standards of the Gospel.

A fourth objective to be reached through Christian training is to develop habits of meaningful worship. Our people need to understand the meaning of worship and to realize that it must be an inner experience. Christians need to be led into the adoption of regular times for private devotions and to have the habitual practice of engaging in public worship. Teachers of religion can do much in training for worship.

Another objective in Christian education is to lead persons into a knowledge and appreciation of the Bible. Pupils need to believe that the Bible is God's Word and have created within them a favorable attitude toward the sacred Book. An appreciation for its contents will follow a thorough acquaintance with its message. It becomes the teacher's responsibility to present it in such a way that the pupil can learn to know the Book and develop ability in using it while witnessing for Christ.

A sixth goal of Christian teaching is to guide persons in establishing and maintaining the Christian home. The influences of this modern age are mitigating against the home as a divine teaching agency. To lay a foundation for successful home building requires the promotion of high ideals in courtship. The great factors in courtship which lay a substantial foundation for a happy and durable home are God, love, purity, Christian faith, and divine guidance. The Christian teacher who assumes the responsibility of guiding persons into happy marriage relationships will seek to lead them into the possession of these great essentials. To maintain the function of the home requires constant teaching on and promotion of family worship and parental discipline. Much can be done to aid parents in these vital home activities.

The aims of Christian education would be incomplete without including the purpose to guide persons into zealous and sympathetic participation in the activities of the Church. The teacher can inspire his pupils to such loyalty through leading them to understand the nature, purpose, and authority of the church. An appreciation of her position in the world can be developed through a study of her history and present activities.

Another objective of our teaching program is to lead Christians to their place of Christian testimony in society. We need to promote honor and respect for civil authority and with that to impress the obligation of our primary allegiance to God. This will necessitate leading people into a life of separation from sin and the world to living in conformity to righteousness and Christ. It will beget support of the missionary program and inspire active individual witnessing for the Lord.

These are the aims which the Commission means to help the Church attain through her various teaching agencies. We hope to assist in correlating the curriculum materials so that our Mennonite constituency may receive the best possible instruction that can be provided. The agencies that have been put under the supervision of the organization are the Sunday school, young people's Bible meeting, summer and week-day Bible schools, teacher training, young people's institutes, mission study courses, and the work that was formerly delegated to the Young People's Problems Committee.

The Sunday school is the most generally accepted means of giving formal religious instruction to our people. The church has been greatly blessed through this ministry, and the Sunday school continues to be one of our most effective means of Christian education. Numerous requests for suggestions concerning better methods of organizing Sunday schools have led the Commission to begin a study of organization and administration as it relates to the various teaching agencies operating within the local organization. It is our aim to print some recommendations that will serve as a guide in meeting the needs of those congregations who are looking for help in this phase of their work. While we cannot hope for total unity in methods of organization we desire to provide practical suggestions for those who wish to improve their organization.

The Young People's Bible Meeting is receiving special attention this year with the hope of making it more vital to the life of the Church. A pamphlet of suggestions for the improvement of these meetings is now in preparation. Quite a few congregations are sponsoring junior Bible meetings at the same time the young people are in session. The calls for more material on this level of teaching are receiving attention and steps are being taken to provide junior topics and programs for the younger group.

The summer and week-day Bible schools are on the increase. The former is becoming quite well established under responsible leaders elected or appointed to supervise the work in the various conference districts. So far, the week-day Bible school is making its way largely under the individual initiative of interested persons. A committee of the Lancaster Conference, however, has done a noble piece of work in the series of week-day Bible school manuals they produced. The Commission is taking the publication of these or something of the kind under advisement.

Mission study is being promoted through our church periodicals and supplementary literature. Additional publications on the general subject of missions are coming from the press during this year. We urge congregations to provide for classes to engage the interests of our young people in the consideration of missions with these textbooks as guides for their study.

Teacher training certificates continue to be issued under the name of the Commission as they were formerly given by the General Sunday School Committee. A new set of young people in your congregation have come to the age when they would appreciate having a teacher training course offered in their community. This training should continue if we wish to increase the teaching efficiency of those newly appointed to positions of instruction.

The young people's problems which are receiving the most serious consideration and study center around the need for sex education and the need for promotion of social purity and Christian ideals in courtship. In addition to this, time is being given to the consideration of the need for creating some means of counteracting the damaging influences of the modern high school.

Young people's institutes report an increase in the support of church leadership as well as in attendance of the young people. There are a few sections of the Church inadequately provided with this form of activity and instruction for youth. It is the desire of the Commission to encourage those who are responsible for leadership in these parts to investigate the possibility of arranging for a similar activity for their young people.

The home as a teaching agency in the Church is being made a primary object of promotion during 1940. It is the desire of the Commission to encourage family worship in the home; to stimulate new interests in making the home a greater spiritual force in the work of the Church; to assist parents by producing and recommending materials for use in their task of training children; to promote higher social ideals for the young people in their courtship; and to inspire parents to greater consecration of their households to the cause of Christ.

Our method of procedure in promoting these interests is to make contacts with officers of the district organizations. We are enlisting their co-operation and seek to acquaint them with the findings of the Commission. We also solicit ideas from them, recording such plans and methods which they have found practical and valuable in their work. This makes the items of their success available to others.

The Commission is a servant of the church. It will be glad to undertake studies of problems or conditions related to the teaching agencies of the church. District organizations are invited to submit suggestions to the organization expressing their convictions on points which they feel need improvement, study, or reconsideration. The entire constituency is requested to pray for the work which is under the supervision of this organization.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S BIBLE MEETING

By J. R. Shank, Secretary of Young People's Bible Meetings

The Young People's Bible Meeting under such a name came into the knowledge and experience of the writer in 1897 at the Mt. Zion Mennonite Church near Versailles, Mo. There had been meetings some time before in this congregation and some years before in other districts. As a young person I had accepted Christ in an isolated field away from church privileges. The meeting, especially for the young people, was a great boon and served to stir up desires to know and to do God's will. The contact and efforts of fellow young people were very stimulating. We greatly rejoiced in the thoughts and testimonies brought forth by those of like age and experience.

There was no special organization except appointment of a leader for each session by the previous leader. The subject was chosen by the leader and worked out by his own thinking or by the help of books to which he had access. During this same period the "Young People's Paper" published helps from some Endeavor list of topics from which some of us selected our subjects. This reaching out for helps from various sources in time brought our earnest leaders to consider the need of brethren of our own faith preparing the helps which would keep our young people on grounds of thought that would conserve the thinking of our youth in fields of thought harmonious with the doctrinal standards and life of the Church.

As this conviction for our own literature by Church approved writers grew, a committee was authorized by General Conference to select topics. The "Christian Monitor" was used as the medium of publication and a department editor was appointed by the Publication Board. This General Conference action was taken at West Liberty, Ohio, in the year 1909. Previous to this the publishing staff at Scottdale, Pa., had arranged topics and appointed an editor of this department. J. D. Charles served in this capacity previous to the present editor. He gave some helpful material and his work was much appreciated. Pressing duties forbade Bro. Charles to continue, and the present editor was called almost suddenly as far as his own thoughts were concerned, but not so suddenly as far as men who were seeking for writers were concerned. My first service was rendered in the year 1910, the first actual outlines and discussions appearing in the Christian Monitor of February 1910. For thirty years the writer has been preparing the material without a break. Thanks is due to the blessing of God for health and strength. Many blessings have been realized in the meditations designed to assist the young people of the Church in their young people's meeting services. These blessings have come in a large measure to the editor himself. It has been our constant prayer that in some measure blessings may have been realized in the hearts of the army of our youth who have passed from boyhood and girlhood to manhood and womanhood and to the ones who from year to year have come in to fill up the ranks of youth.

A Topics Committee of five in which the Topics Editor and the Editor of the Monitor were included have been appointed for two years at each General Conference, until the General Conference at Belleville, Pa., in 1939. Due to a plan adopted by the General Conference in Oregon in 1937 by which this service is to be rendered by the Commission for Christian Education and Young People's Work, no other special committee has been set apart by General Conference, but the Commission has been made responsible to prepare the work and present it to the Publishing Committee as heretofore for their examination and approval.

The spirit of the service is unchanged. The topics are selected by a committee of three chosen by the Commission, and, for the past two years, included the Editor of the Topics, the Editor of the Christian Monitor and Bro. J. R. Mumaw, General Secretary for the Commission. Our work has been passed up to the Publishing Committee before publication. The Commission has appointed a department Secretary of Young People's Meeting Work, of which the writer is the present one appointed by the Commission. This department will have the counsel and help of the entire Commission and the service which the General Secretary can gather from the field, and with the counsel and help which our young people's workers throughout the Church can render by their kindly suggestions and advice from time to time.

The efforts which the former committee of five made to promote and encourage the work are being continued and we are looking forward during the coming year to publish some special articles for our periodicals designed to show the great opportunities before us in the forwarding of this service throughout the church. May we have the united prayer and labor of parents, ministers, and workers in the encouragement and development of our young people for the service of God and the Church in harmony with the Holy Word and the faith held dear by many generations.

1939 YOUNG PEOPLE'S INSTITUTES

By O. O. Miller, Secretary of Y. P. I.

The appended statistics show that nine regularly organized and conducted Young People's Institutes were held during this year. There was a total attendance of 1,142, of whom 774 were women and 368 men. The median age of all these attendants was about 20.

Geographically these Institutes have been held from the Pacific to the Atlantic. There were, however, none in Canada. Possibly the two most striking facts revealed by these statistics are:

1. The proportion of women to men.

2. That aside from Eastern Pennsylvania these nine Institutes would seem to give the church's young people adequate geographical coverage. The Commission for Christian Education and Young People's Work feels that at least two Institutes should be encouraged for Canadian territory—one in Ontario and one somewhere in the West, and perhaps in time there could well be an additional week-end Institute planned in the East.

Reports accompanying the Institutes indicate that the spirit pervading all of them this summer was very good. The movement promises to continue to grow and to increase its service to the church.

All of these Institutes except the one at Arbutus Park were of the week-end four-day type. The one at Arbutus Park continued for a twelve-day period. Those most closely connected with this longer Institute feel that a permanent site is urgently needed for the proper development of this type of service to our young people. It is thought that in time two such—one East of the Mississippi and one in the western part of the country—would adequately serve the constituency to be reached and helped by this longer period.

HISTORY OF THE JOHNSTOWN MISSION

By Sanford G. Shetler

The people of the Johnstown District have been "missionary minded" for many years. This is evidenced by the various attempts at different times in conducting mission Sunday schools and conducting regular preaching at union halls. The six churches of the Johnstown District at the present time are conducting six mission Sunday schools with regular bi-weekly preaching services. In addition to these endeavors the mission spirit is further maintained by a special interest in foreign mission work. J. N. Kaufman, the present president of the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities, and Lloy and Elizabeth Kniss, missionaries to India, have all come from this district. At the present time Bro. and Sister David Alwine of this district are engaged in Mexican border mission work.

With this mission spirit the apparent indifference to work in the city of Johnstown which is situated closely to all of the churches was a constant source of remarks by folks outside and inside the district. The city with its population of 104,000 would certainly be a field for mission activities. The theme of almost every annual (Fourth of July) mission meeting was "Why Not Begin at Home?" (Johnstown). Several scattered attempts had been made, but in each case work was discontinued for unknown reasons. As early as 1902, the Southwestern Pennsylvania Conference in session at Scottdale, Pa., passed a resolution, "Resolved, That we favor the establishment of a mission in Johnstown, and that we appoint a committee to look up a place and find workers for the mission." As far as I am able to find out, nothing definite was done to carry out this resolution. More than twenty years later, Bro. Lloy A. Kniss, then of the Stahl Church, conducted periodic services on the street with a group of interested brethren and sisters of the district. Tracts were also distributed. These activities, too, were discontinued when Bro. Kniss left for the India field. His earnest desires were to see a mission started as soon as possible. Later on (about fourteen years) tract distribution was again resumed. This time the Pleasant Grove congregation began weekly tract distribution in the Memorial Hospital. This work is still being carried on at the present time. Still later other of the churches began distribution in the city at different parts, which is also being done at the present time. This tract work is carried on faithfully by the younger folks of the church.

In 1938, Bro. U. Grant Weaver brought to the attention of the ministerial body once more, the urgent need of opening work in Johnstown as well as the practical possibilities of such an endeavor. The Ministerial Body in session in the fall of 1938 decided that the project was too large for the Johnstown District itself and that the conference be requested to take over and act upon this suggestion for the actual opening of work. Committees were appointed, surveys made, and concrete action taken by the various authorized bodies. The matter was finally brought to the Executive Committee of Conference for the decision as to the opening of the work, which decision was favorable. This action was taken in the early part of 1939. The Mission Board of the district authorized and appointed a local committee of five brethren to undertake the actual work of preparing for occupation the Mission Building, and equipping it with suitable furnishings. This work was done by the help of many brethren and sisters of the district and also by means of contributions from different congregations of the Conference District. By the end of August, everything began to assume a "Mission" appearance and the Lauvers (William G. and family, missionaries to South America on furlough), with whom previous arrangements had been made, became the first occupants of the Mission home.

The work seems to be progressing very well. While there are not yet so many in attendance in the regular services, we are hoping that during 1940 there will be a marked increase. The visitation work carried on so extensively ever since the opening of the work in August will undoubtedly begin to yield fruit within the near future. In fact many folks have already expressed the desire to attend and some of those who are attending are considering seriously uniting with the Mennonite Church. In addition to the regular work, a weekly service is held amongst the Mexican population of the city. While only a fraction of the time is devoted to this work, yet the need was felt to make the witness as wide as possible and include all the souls it is possible to include. One of this number has also expressed the desire to fellowship with our faith.

We are all very happy to have been able to secure the services of competent missionaries for this work. Everyone feels that Bro. and Sister Lauver are very well adapted to the work of the Mission and especially at the beginning. Their acquaintance with the Spanish work has helped to open the door to service among the Mexicans, and at the same time it serves as an inspiration to them in their work, having been

MENNONITE HOSPITAL AND SANITARIUM

By Allen H. Erb, Superintendent

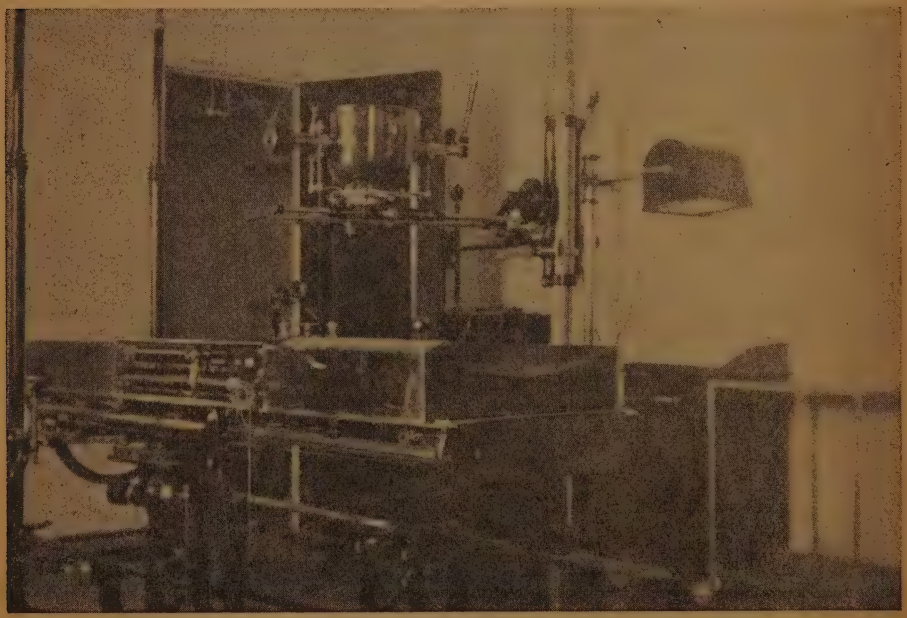
The word "hospital" is derived from the Latin word Hospes meaning guest. Hospitalia is Latin for an apartment for guests. We use the word "hospital" and do not think that we are referring to it as a place for entertaining guests. Our patients are guests.

With this explanation we are pleased to explain that during the last fiscal year the Mennonite Church has received 1,414 guests in her hospital located at La Junta, Colorado. These guests represent all ages; American, Japanese and Mexican nationalities; the white and the black races; the rich and the poor classes; and the Protestant, Catholic and Buddhist religions, and, no religion at all.

They came to us because they were sick. They expected diagnosis and treatment for their ailments. Since we are Christians they have a right to expect the best. A cup of cold water given in Jesus' name must be clean to honor that name.

Laboratory service is one of the aids helpful in correct diagnosis. Our laboratory is a branch of the State Laboratory of Colorado. One of the recent services added was the addition of facilities for doing pneumococcus typing. This makes available for pneumonia patients the pneumococcic serum furnished by the State through Federal funds.

Another aid in diagnosis is the X-ray (picture of this department below). The X-ray is used as an aid in diagnosing chest, bone, stomach, and other internal conditions.



X-ray Laboratory

Instructor with Class

Nursing care is of vital importance in the treatment of our guests. Good nursing is acquired by application and training.

Above is a picture of an instructor with a class of nurse students in the students' classroom. There are eight students in the senior class; twelve, in the junior class; and fourteen, in the freshman class. These students come from many states and Canada. One is a Japanese girl from La Junta. This is probably the only direct contact our church is making with the Japanese people.

One immediate problem facing the School of Nursing is the recommendation of the State Accrediting Agency that we isolate the school organization from the hospital organization. This suggestion will be given careful consideration this year.

Surgery is a modern aid in treatment of our guests. During the past year there have been done 537 surgical operations in the hospital. This is an average of almost 1.5 daily.

A place of common interest is the nursery. Here the new babe is given his first home. Two hundred seven babies lived here during the past year. These become precious guests. The nurses give them a tender and heartfelt good-bye as they leave for their homes.

Thus these guests pass through our doors. Of the 1,414, all came in and went out but 75. These 75 went into the unseen world. To them it should have meant something to have crossed the threshold of eternity in a hospital where the name of Jesus is sung and the life of Jesus is practiced. And to those who went back to their homes they remember the Mennonite Church not only as a church which teaches negative laws but which practices positive goodwill.

CHRISTIAN Z. YODER

By Daniel Kauffman

Many were the saddened hearts when the news was flashed abroad that Christian Zook Yoder, for many years a faithful minister of the Gospel and a well-known figure in Mennonite Church activities, had answered the heavenly summons to be with loved ones gone before. It was not that his many friends felt that he was taken away too soon; for he had been living on "borrowed time" for a little over twenty years. But because of his whole-souled and friendly disposition, he was much loved; especially among those who knew him best. A native of Mifflin Co., Pa., where he was born Nov. 25, 1845, at the age of ten he accompanied his father's family to Wayne Co., Ohio, where he spent the remainder of his life. Here he united with the Oak Grove Church in September, 1865, which congregation he served as an active member, deacon, and minister to the end of his life.

His father, Bishop John K. Yoder, being an active and far-seeing Church leader as well as Church official, young Christian had the advantage of an early training that he turned to good account later in life. As a young man he was active in service, a pioneer in aggressive Christian work in his community, serving in the capacity of Sunday-school superintendent and holding other responsible positions in the Church. He did not, at first sight or acquaintance, impress you as a man of outstanding ability; and yet he had a number of special gifts which, coupled with a well-balanced personality, enabled him to fill a number of important positions in a very acceptable way.

Solomon says, "He that hath friends must shew himself friendly." Bro. Yoder possessed that quality to a remarkable degree. Of an amiable disposition, practically everybody looked upon him as a friend. His home was headquarters for Christian hospitality. A lover of song, he was especially gifted as a song leader. A lover of children, he was a prime favorite in conducting children's meetings. Burdened for the welfare of the Cause, he was always available for service where aggressive Christian work was to be undertaken. Though not specially gifted with eloquence in speech, his was the eloquence of sincerity which made his service effective as an evangelist. His loyalty to Christ and the Church and burden for souls made his service acceptable in a wide range of activities and positions. Following is a partial list of the more prominent positions in which he served during the active part of his life:

Deacon, 1890-1904.
Minister, 1904-1939.
President Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities, 1911-1920.
Chairman Mission Committee, 1920-1928.
Chairman of the Mennonite Music Committee for many years; also an active member on other Church-wide committees.

From the sketch of his life thus far given, one might get the idea that his entire life work was devoted to the work of the Church. This is true in a sense, but not in the sense that he did not also take the time and energy to support his own family. He and his faithful life companion brought up a large family, taught them and showed them how to work, and besides this contributed liberally to religious and charitable purposes. With the apostle Paul he could truthfully say, "With these hands I have laboured to my own necessities, and to them that were with me."

It was his experience in practical life which not only enabled him to support his family in a material way but also helped him as a valuable counsellor to his brethren in the faith. He was especially gifted in the way of giving comfort to the sick, courage to the downhearted, and help to the needy. In his diligent visitation work, he always left a ray of sunshine after he had taken his leave. He was at all times cheerful, yet not given to foolishness or frivolity.

One of the things that helped to put the touch of tenderness to his nature was his frail health during the years of his childhood, youth, and younger manhood. By these experiences he learned to take care of his health, which to a large extent was responsible for his long life. He retained an active mind till toward the close of his life, and to the last he had a live interest in the welfare of the Church. He was an interested attendant at General Conference at Allensville, Pa., last August. Like all mortals, he had his shortcomings; but his shortcomings, like the rest of him, were upon the altar of the Lord, and the Lord enabled him to live the victorious life. We cherish his memory. His place among us is vacant, and this means added responsibility upon those of us who are left. May the standards of the Gospel and of the Mennonite Church, which were near to his heart, be held to with like loyalty by us all; not only by his home congregation but by the entire brotherhood in Christ.

BISHOP JACOB K. BIXLER

By J. S. Hartzler

The subject of this sketch, son of John and Barbara (Huber) Bixler, was born in Winesburg, Ohio, September 5, 1877, and departed this life Wednesday morning, December 20, 1939. He was the second of a family of five—three sons and two daughters, the oldest (John Henry) and the father having preceded him in death.

When Jacob was five years old, the family moved to Indiana, onto a farm one and one-half miles north of Wakarusa in Elkhart County. He attended the common schools and the Wakarusa High School. After graduating from the latter, he taught two terms of school near his home and one term in Livingston County, Illinois. At the latter place he formed an acquaintance with Susan Bailey of Cullom, Illinois, and on December 22, 1904, they were married. They trod the path of life together in Indiana, except for one winter in Los Angeles, California.

One daughter, Esther, was born to them who with one brother, two sisters, his mother (aged 88) and many other relatives and friends survive him. Sister Bixler died June 27, 1939. In a little less than six months Sister Esther was bereft of both her parents. For many years both Bro. and Sister Bixler had not been well. In 1907 he was under the doctor's care for many months. Later he seemed to regain partly his health, but was a constant sufferer nearly all the time until death relieved him.

Bro. Bixler began his Christian life in 1895, and was received into the fellowship of the Mennonite Church in the Holderman congregation with a class of others by water baptism administered by Bro. John F. Funk. On April 23, 1904, he was ordained to the ministry, and on November 3, 1907, he was ordained to the office of bishop. Bro. David Burkholder officiated at both of these ordinations.

Both his baptismal vow and his ordination vows were very sacred to

Bro. Bixler. Some thought him to be almost severe in his discipline, but being a Bible student of note, he applied its teachings to present-day conditions. Having a strong personality and a conviction on Bible principles that was not easily shaken and because of his knowledge of the Scriptures, he became quite an outstanding figure in church and conference work. When he was able (and at times when he was not really able), he was a regular attendant at conference and filled many places of responsibility. He also served in many places throughout the church as an evangelist and instructor in Bible conferences. He was also active in Summer Bible School work when that came into prominence in the work of the church more than a decade ago.

He also served on a number of important church-wide committees. Chief among these were the Mission Committee of the General Mission Board and the Publishing Committee of the Mennonite Publication Board. The work of the latter is to go over the manuscripts of books being prepared for publication. His thorough knowledge of the Bible, his keen sense of what constituted good English, and his good judgment of what would be acceptable to the constituency of the Mennonite Church, made him an especially valuable member of the Publishing Committee.

When District Mission Boards (as auxiliaries to the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities) were being organized in various parts of the church Bro. Bixler was one of the leading "pushers" for such an organization in the Indiana-Michigan conference district. When the organization was completed, it was found that the duties of the Secretary and the Mission Superintendent overlapped in part, and he was asked to assume both offices. To attend to this work properly required much traveling. "Getting out and in at all hours of the day and night, and living in the country," did not seem to fit together, hence plans were made for him to move to Elkhart, Indiana, as practically all trains stopped here.

One of the first problems that confronted the Board was to find ways to care for fifteen dead or dying congregations in its district. Added to this there were quite a few scattered members. Efforts were made to save them, but most of them were too far gone. A number of them died a natural death, while a few were swallowed up by near-by larger congregations. But eight new congregations have been organized since the Board began. Bro. Bixler had a large part in all except one of these—Fernland, on the northern peninsula of Michigan, the latest one.

His autobiography says that in 1925 he resigned his secretaryship on account of ill health. After the death of Bro. E. A. Mast, bishop of the Howard-Miami congregation, Bro. Bixler was chosen to have bishop oversight of that congregation. He held this position until such time as he and the congregation considered it wise to ordain a local bishop, and only in June, 1939, did he resign his work there. After that time he preached very few sermons, and much of the time was not even able to attend the services.

It was hoped that spending the winter in Los Angeles, Calif., would be good for the health of both parents and daughter, but, being away from home and with the sickness of Sister Bixler the larger part of the time, made the load heavy for both husband and daughter, so that they lost instead of improved. Sister Bixler stood the auto trip home quite well, but after arriving here, she seldom left her bed except for short intervals, and on June 27, 1939, she left us to go home and be with the Lord. This was a hard blow on our brother, especially in his physical condition.

The doctors disagreed on the nature of Bro. Bixler's ailment, and he died without being thoroughly convinced as to the cause of his illness, although he spent considerable money to find out.

In his travels he formed many acquaintances from the Atlantic to the Pacific in the United States and even in some of the provinces of Canada. We have heard the last of his edifying messages and his strong pleas for loyalty to God and the church. His work is done. Will we follow his teachings? The reward is his, the opportunity ours.

engaged among Spanish-speaking people for their two terms in the South American field under the General Board. The future of the Mission relative to the continuance of the Lauvers is still uncertain, but we are trusting the Lord to provide someone for the work in case they should return to the South America field in the near future.

The work is not without difficulties. As in every community there are some who may be much less interested in mission work than others. This naturally makes the burden just a little harder and the responsibility greater for those who are actively participating in providing financial and moral support. Any help that anyone in the church at large can render, will be very acceptable. Our present building, while spacious and commodious, is also correspondingly of greater rental cost. Whether the present location will become the permanent location is not a settled question yet, but regardless of location, there is sufficient opinion that the idea of a Mission in the city of Johnstown, as planned for in 1902 is a good one and that the work is here to stay. May God bless the work of the JOHNSTOWN MISSION.

NONRESISTANCE

By John E. Lapp

Nonresistance is the way of life which characterizes the true Christian and distinguishes him from all other people who live according to the way of the present world. The term has its origin in the words of the Saviour in Matt. 5:39: "But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also."

Nonresistance versus Pacifism

There seems to be quite a popular movement in the world, called pacifism. Sometimes Christians are misled by their teachings and practices. The terms nonresistance and pacifism are not synonymous. The pacifist, according to the present use of the term, is one who declares himself to be opposed to war, especially those wars which are not waged for a righteous (?) cause. In the event that he is brought face to face with war, he must determine in his own mind, whether it is a righteous cause for which to fight or not. If it is not a righteous cause, the chances are that the effect of the propaganda will change his thinking so that he will call it a righteous war and will take part in it. The nonresistant person has settled the matter of war in his own mind once for all, by accepting the principle of Jesus Christ to "resist not evil." The difference is simply a matter of following one's own ideas on the question of the moral right or wrong of the conflict, or simply taking the divine principle which governs the true child of God and following it in every phase of his life.

For Christians Only

Nonresistance is a way of living for Christians only, and cannot be thrust upon those who have not experienced His salvation, expecting them to live the teachings. All who attempt to practice it apart from Jesus Christ will fail. Men of the world and the nations of the world long for peace because they recognize that peace time is the time when they prosper the most in every way. In Eccl. 9:18, the Preacher says: "Wisdom is better than the weapons of war." If the nations and individuals of the world would learn this maxim, all attempts to outwit the other fellow in the manufacture of destructive munitions, weapons, and armaments would cease. The energies of all would be directed into channels of constructive thinking and manufacturing. A condition like this among the nations and non-Christians of the world cannot be hoped for. Jesus said: "Ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars" (Matt. 24:6). This prediction has been the experience of humanity since the words were uttered. In the past 3,421 years of world history there have been only 268 years of peace in the world. In this period of time about 8,000 peace treaties were signed; the average life of each was two years. We sometimes call ours a peaceful and peace-loving land, forgetting that we have a record of having a war every 25 years. Maybe the United States is not quite so peace-loving as we are apt to think. With this condition in the world around us, we must regard nonresistance as a divine principle for the governing of the Christian's life only.

Must be Practiced in Times of Peace

The complete teaching of Jesus on this doctrine is found in Matt. 5:38-45. The teaching as He gave it upset all the ideas of the religious leaders of His day, and are still running counter to the ideas of many present-day so-called Christian teachers. Jesus makes the teaching of nonresistance a vital principle governing our daily actions in the home, in the neighborhood, in society in general, and in our relation to the state. Our ability to maintain this principle in life and withstand the pressure in wartime, depends upon how well we have practiced the teaching in times of peace. Some folks think this teaching as given is impossible to be lived in the present order of world conditions. There are some teachers who claim this teaching is not for us at the present time. The Sermon on the Mount is a catalog of vital teachings which affect every part of the Christian's living, and if he doesn't live it now, he will never have the privilege of trying to live it amidst better world conditions. The record of Jesus, who is the author of the doctrine, is sufficient proof that it can be lived in the present life with present world conditions. When Peter struck Malchus with his sword, cutting off his ear, Jesus said: "Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword." When Pilate asked Jesus whether He was a king, Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight." Jesus also gave for the rule of the Christian's life the following: "And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise." He also said: "I am meek and lowly in heart." Peter in I Pet. 2:21-23 shows how Jesus carried out His own teachings in His life. Someone says: "All very good; but it is the teachings and practice of Deity and not of a human." We will proceed to show how this vital principle has been taught and lived by other men of God.

Taught and Practiced by the Followers of Christ

Paul gives teaching similar to that of Jesus in Rom. 12:19-21. He said: "The servant of the Lord must not strive." The same writer does speak of the Christian life as a conflict, but he says "The weapons of our warfare are not carnal." He not only taught this elevated Christian ideal, but upon numerous occasions practiced the same. The account of his life, as rehearsed in II Cor. 11:23-27, verifies this. Peter's teaching in I Pet. 3:9 is of a similar nature, and he also practiced this standard on many occasions in his life. John bears out the teaching of Jesus and the other apostles when he says: "If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?" John also practiced this principle in his life on numerous occasions.

A few characters in the Old Testament portray the nonresistant way of life in a beautiful manner. Isaac, for instance, shows us how to practice it in the neighborhood. Joseph showed how to overcome family quarrels with LOVE. Jeremiah advised the king and his people to fall into the hands of the Chaldeans; the prophet was accused of being a traitor. He was not a traitor, but was simply exercising wisdom and exemplifying true patriotism in giving the kind of advice that would avoid the destruction of human life and property.

The Christian's Relation to the Government

Christians should always recognize the government as being a divinely ordained institution. Remembering that obedience is due them, and if for any reason we cannot obey them, i. e., if their demands conflict with the law of God, then we need to submit to the penalty prescribed for this disobedience. Christians should always willingly pay any taxes levied by the government and never fail to pray for the authorities.

The Reality of the Christian Religion

The prophets portray Jesus as the peaceful King of subjects who have been transformed by the power of grace divine and in this transformation become people with new ideals and aspirations in life. All the weapons of war are destroyed, (Zech. 9:10) or are transformed into instruments of good (Micah 4:4) and their energies are directed into such channels whereby they contribute to the happiness and welfare of man, rather than take part in the destruction of human life and property in any way. As Christians, we need to practice the teachings of Jesus now, and the world will know that there is a reality to the religion of Jesus Christ that can be fully realized in no way except in the lives of those who are truly children of God.

Summary

In summing up the Bible teachings on this doctrine, we see that the Bible teaches us the doctrine of nonresistance as a way of Christian living. It shows to us how men of God have lived these teachings of Jesus in family life, in quarrelsome neighborhoods, in relation to the state and society in general. As we live this principle in our everyday life, we shall be able to carry out the full extent of the principle in times of national stress when all are living under tension. We carry out the teaching in its fullness when we show love and perform deeds of mercy to all men including our enemies. Matt. 5:44. In times of war our relief program should be especially directed to those who are the enemies of our own nation, thereby emphasizing the positive side of this negatively stated doctrine, remembering that all deeds of love and mercy will be remembered in the judgment, if done in the name of Christ. That which our Lord is most interested in is not the amount of Christian work which we may accomplish, but rather the way in which the fruit of the Spirit is shown forth in our lives. May our lives be such that LOVE (the first emblem of the fruit of the Spirit) is pre-eminent.

UNAFFILIATED MENNONITE CONGREGATIONS

The following is a list of ministers of various bodies of Mennonites who adhere to the tenets of the Confession of Faith adopted by the Mennonites at Dortrecht in 1632, but have not affiliated themselves with any of the organized conferences. If we are privileged to prepare future issues of this work, we shall be glad to add to this list as we secure information enabling us to do so.

MARTYRS MIRROR

By Thieleman J. van Braght

A second title is The Bloody Theater of the Defenseless Christians who baptized only upon confession of faith, and who suffered and died for the testimony of Jesus their Saviour, from the time of Christ to the year A. D. 1660. Compiled from various authentic chronicles, memorials, and testimonies by Thieleman J. van Braght. Translated from the original Dutch or Holland language from the edition of 1660 by Joseph F. Sohm.

The book presents the doctrines, teachings and practices, as well as the story of the sufferings, the faithful endurance, and the final triumphant deaths of those of like precious faith with us who lived in the earlier ages of Christianity. A book for every Mennonite and Amish home.

Strong buff imitation leather binding, sprinkled edge, postpaid $6.00.

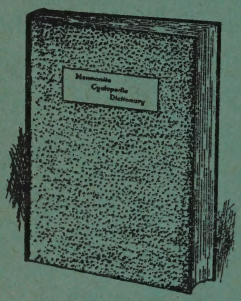
First of Its Kind in Mennonite Literature

Mennonite Cyclopedic Dictionary

Daniel Kauffman, Editor, assisted by many brethren.

A compendium of the doctrines, history, activities, literature, and environments of the Mennonite Church, especially in America.

It brings together and makes available in alphabetical arrangement a wealth of information regarding events, Christian doctrine, institutions, conferences, families and other items of interest to every Mennonite.



One very interesting feature of the book is its nearly 1000 biographical sketches of Mennonite leaders and Mennonite families in America; also four or five hundred places of historic interest are described.

The editor says, "Our aim has been to present information that is accurate, true to facts, brief yet complete; arranged in a convenient way, so that anyone desiring to have information concerning any point bearing on Mennonitism may find in a few minutes what he wants."

Four hundred twelve pages are taken up with the Dictionary proper. Then follows the Appendix, consisting of three main topics, namely: (1) Mennonite Centers of Population with illustrative maps; (2) Source Material used in the compiling of the book; (3) Fifty Fundamental Doctrinal Facts with brief analysis of each.

The publishers believe that this book will render a very valuable service to the Church. But this is only possible as it gets out into the individual homes. Therefore we solicit the interest and co-operation of the leadership of the Church in bringing this book to the attention of our people.

Testimonials

"It fills a real place in the literature of our Church"—Ira D. Landis.

"It will be a very valuable book that should be found in the library of every Mennonite home"—A. J. Steiner.

"You have placed the entire brotherhood and all succeeding generations of young Mennonites deeply in debt to you for your valuable, painstaking work"—John Umble.

"I find it a most interesting and valuable contribution to Mennonite history"—C. Henry Smith.
